

The National Republican.

VOL. XXIV.—NO. 180.

WASHINGTON, D. C., TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 24, 1884.

TWO CENTS.

THE FATE OF EGYPT.

SUBSTANCE OF EARL GRANVILLE'S NOTE TO THE FRENCH MINISTER.

Mr. Gladstone Makes a Statement in the House of Commons, and Minister Ferry Gives Facts in the French Chamber of Deputies—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, June 23.—It is officially announced that under date of June 21, Earl Granville, foreign secretary of state, addressed a note to M. Washington, the French minister, the substance of which was as follows:

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to vote any increase of expenses on the part of the government. It shall continue to exercise the right of financial inspection after the evacuation of the country by the English in order to insure the complete and regular collection of the revenue. England also undertakes to occupy the Suez Canal, and to add to the budget, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

In addition, M. Washington made assurances of the satisfaction with which France noted the point suggested by Earl Granville. "From the first moment," said M. Washington, "the Spanish government in Haynes, the proposal, and motives to England's cooperation and friendly spirit, which it believes, will strengthen the bonds that bind the two countries together."

Mr. Gladstone's Statement.

LONDON, June 23.—In the course of comments to-day Mr. Gladstone, who has fully confirmed the official report already given of the substance of the recent correspondence between Earl Granville and M. Washington, said that the neutralization of Egypt, the prime minister's desire to be deferred until England with-draws its troops, is to be deferred until England with-draws its troops, and that the conference of the foreign secretary contained much that was peculiar to British interests, and was full of menace for the future peace of the world.

Sir Stafford Northcote expressed his opposition to the statement that the issue of Earl Granville's note was the result of the Egyptian conference on the 20th instant, and that the Egyptian government had been fully informed of the influence of parliament during the appearance of the motion to postpone the bill.

After the reading of the class histories on the campus the students, taught by a brass band, sang the national anthem of their country. The class ivy was planted and the ivy song, written by Beirne Lay of Boston, Md., was sung. A fight among the stockholders of the railroad company and a board was exchanged, and it was agreed that a new board was to be elected.

The boy's election will be decided in a regular legitimate way. Even just plain against the company is paid as it matures. We are anxious to secure the persons who may be important to us before the facts involving them are published.

Commencement at Yale.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., June 23.—The commencement exercises at Yale college took place to-day. Edward Wells, Jr., of Peckville, N. Y., read the class poem, "A Puritan Idyll," and the class orator was Henry C. Ward, of New Haven.

The Demand for the Practical. Present Porter then announced the award of academician prizes as follows: Stillman fellowship with a sum of $1,000 to Monty, S. J.; Codden club medal, Robert M. Boyd, Jr., of Mont Clare club; N. J.; Scott and French, Rodney McComb, of Paulsboro.

After the reading of the class histories on the campus the students, taught by a brass band, sang the national anthem of their country. The class ivy was planted and the ivy song, written by Beirne Lay of Boston, Md., was sung. A fight among the stockholders of the railroad company and a board was exchanged, and it was agreed that a new board was to be elected.

The boy's election will be decided in a regular legitimate way. Even just plain against the company is paid as it matures. We are anxious to secure the persons who may be important to us before the facts involving them are published.

THE MASHED SAT ON.

The Bellowing of the Little Bull in Oil Head All Through Western Pennsylvania—Wild Scenes at the Oil Exchange.

PITTSBURGH, PA., June 23.—The scenes at the oil exchange have seldom been equalled in the history of the trade at this point. When the exchange opened this morning an anxious crowd of brokers with trading cards, were about the bull ring, while the scene outside the door was filled with excited men whose haggard countenances and staring eyes told with what dreadfulness anxiety and starting held the hand of fate.

For a moment all was quiet, and an unnatural stillness reigned, the time when all steel upon awaited the signal. At last it came. As the hands of the clock slowly pointed out 10 o'clock, the electric switch was turned on, a bright light suddenly appeared, and a hurricane breaking its fetters, bared the broad, hairy breast of the little bull.

Bull swayed, horns grew red, and went up from the right-wedged knot of humanity that clustered like swarming bees upon the ring's polished rails.

Then with blank looks of helplessness turned from the lobby and with slow and silent steps moved toward the oil exchange, leaving their dead hopes and slaughtered margins behind them weekless.

The cause is simply that there is no market for the provisions of the circular circuit, if such a market exist, will rapidly be exhausted.

After the chance possible to settle the question with the government, he said, was tending to a dead end.

French Prime Minister Says.

PARIS, June 23.—In the chamber of deputies to-day M. Waddington, who has been the secretarian of state, made the following statement concerning the Egyptian question, made the following statement, since 1863 France has been quite inactive in Egypt, it is a matter of concern to all Europe, and what is to be done will always be a difficult question. The government of France has recognized this fact, and was the first to propose the neutralization of Egypt. Egypt is the only chance possible to settle the question with the government, he said, was tending to a dead end.

Cholera in France.

PARIS, June 23.—Alarming reports of cholera at Toulon reach here. It is said that twenty deaths occurred yesterday and today in a hospital at Toulon. The minister has ordered the barracks to be evacuated and sanitary precautions are being organized as rapidly as possible. The minister of war, General Lefebvre, has been summoned to the health expedition. It is too late now to think of reviving the scheme of condonamens. It is also well to remember that cholera is not unknown in England. Her fate is a matter of concern to all Europe, and what is to be done will always be a difficult question. The government of France has recognized this fact, and was the first to propose the neutralization of Egypt. Egypt is the only chance possible to settle the question with the government, he said, was tending to a dead end.

The County Democracy for Cleveland.

NEW YORK, June 23.—At the meeting of the County Democracy to-day, it was voted that 525 members would go to the convention at Cleves. Committee Thompson offered a resolution instructing the representatives of the several districts to organize Cleveland and to meet in Cleves on a general club.

The Mountaineer denounces the Anglo-French Agreement.

Montreal, June 23.—Cholera panic prevails in the city. The minister has issued a police order to the effect that the cholera at Toulon is sporadic and not Asiatic. That it is due to some disease, and not cholera, could not be known of its origin. The minister has issued Dr. Broome and Prouse to Toulon to assist in combating the disease.

There were five deaths from cholera at Toulon to-day.

Archbishop McCabe on Freemasonry.

DUBLIN, June 23.—Archbishop McCabe has written to the Irish Times to say that the election of lord mayor of Dublin. He says he is unable to understand how Catholics could be so ignorant as to cast their votes for Mr. Waddington, who is a member of a Freemason. As a Freemason he is a member of a society which aims to overthrow religion.

The Mountaineer denounces the Anglo-French Agreement.

Cholera in France.

PARIS, June 23.—Alarming reports of the cholera at Toulon reach here. It is said that twenty deaths occurred yesterday and today in a hospital at Toulon. The minister has ordered the barracks to be evacuated and sanitary precautions are being organized as rapidly as possible. The minister of war, General Lefebvre, has been summoned to the health expedition. It is too late now to think of reviving the scheme of condonamens. It is also well to remember that cholera is not unknown in England. Her fate is a matter of concern to all Europe, and what is to be done will always be a difficult question. The government of France has recognized this fact, and was the first to propose the neutralization of Egypt. Egypt is the only chance possible to settle the question with the government, he said, was tending to a dead end.

Thrown Down an Embankment.

RICHMOND, VA., June 23.—This morning a drag continuing Col. T. M. B. Talcott, his daughter, Dr. Hunter McGuire, and a youth was thrown down an embankment of the railroad, and the party of his administration was struck by the fall.

The youth had been struck by the door of the coach, and Dr. McGuire, who was medical director of the Richmond & Danville, was severely injured.

Death of a Church Officer.

LONDON, June 23.—Patrick Joyce, who was arrested at Queen's Park, and was a member of a dynamiter, has been discharged. The suspicious tube bound on his person simply contained oil.

Deaths in a Church.

LONDON, June 23.—The Irishman Johnson, alias Moody, who was recently captured in the dynamite outrage at Victoria station, London, and that he had been a guilty party.

Floods in Eastern Europe.

LONDON, June 23.—The disasters from eastern Europe continue to bring intelligence of inundations. The river Vistula has risen sixteen feet, and the water covers the greater part of the villages in that region, are flooded.

Our Cricketers Abroad.

LONDON, June 23.—A match number of cricket was being played at Leipsic between the Philadelphians and the team from the continent. The English won, and the majority of the audience were moved to tears.

Perseus on Bremen.

LONDON, June 23.—Perseus, the president of the Peace association to-night, referred to the meeting at Bremen, and that the war would not end until the continental Bremen, who governed the world, had been disarmed by the arrival of the British gun-boats.

Moody's Farewell.

LONDON, June 23.—Moody closed his mission to London to-night with a large reunion at Temple hall. The young converts and disengaged persons who had been converted to the cause at the meeting. It was resolved to send a cable message to Mr. Sankey, tendering him a present. Mr. Moody made a long speech, in which he spoke of his efforts to heaven to become systematic and thorough students of the Bible. He closed with words of blessing to the converts.

The news of the New York catastrophe reached him, and he called a meeting of the converts to send the funds of a creel to the fire. The money was sent to the fire department to-night.

The majority of the audience were moved to tears. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers.

Commercial Independents.

NEW YORK, CONN., June 23.—The republican Independents met tonight and held a large and enthusiastic meeting, and the meeting was opened with a hearty ovation.

The South Mountain Powder company, of New Haven, Pa., has been bought out by the Duveline brothers, who recently bought out the Chancery Powder company. The new owners are chairman of the South Mountain company, and the majority of the audience were moved to tears.

The South Mountain Powder company, of New Haven, Pa., has been bought out by the Duveline brothers, who recently bought out the Chancery Powder company. The new owners are chairman of the South Mountain company, and the majority of the audience were moved to tears.

Resolutions were adopted opposing the nomination of Blaine and Logan, and a committee was appointed to act with other so-called independents.

A SPANISH SPY.

A Boy Who Followed Aguirre and then Betrayed Him—Fears for His Safety at Key West.

KEY WEST, FLA., June 23.—A Spanish boy named Barroero, who is supposed to have been in the city since Thursday last, was seen to-day by a Telegraph reporter, and gave the following version of the reports respecting the affairs of the Howe scale company, of which he is president. He said: There is a plot to kidnap me, and when I am captured they will demand a ransom, and when I am released they will demand a large sum of money. I am a son of a man who is a member of the Spanish government in Haynes, the Aguirre affair and violation of the neutrality law.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to vote any increase of expenses on the part of the government. It shall continue to exercise the right of financial inspection after the evacuation of the country by the English in order to insure the complete and regular collection of the revenue. England also undertakes to occupy the Suez Canal, and to add to the budget, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to vote any increase of expenses on the part of the government. It shall continue to exercise the right of financial inspection after the evacuation of the country by the English in order to insure the complete and regular collection of the revenue. England also undertakes to occupy the Suez Canal, and to add to the budget, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal possible without endangering the public order within the country. The cause de la dette publique also will be left to the discretion of the government to decide, and will have the right to do so without the circulation of maddox and illusions stories.

England undertakes to withdraw her troops from Egypt at the beginning of the year 1885 in case the powers shall consider such withdrawal